

The True Cost of Business Meetings

EVERY DAY IN THE USA, AN AVERAGE OF 11 MILLION MEETINGS TAKE PLACE.

What Does This Cost Businesses?

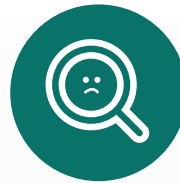

Money

Most organizations spend 7-15 percent of their personnel resources on meetings.

Frustration

40 percent of employees waste up to 30 minutes a day searching for meeting space.

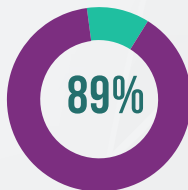

Productivity

Office workers feel that more than half of meetings are a waste of time. Ad hoc meetings are often considered more productive than recurring meetings.

Time

On average, management spend 35 to 50 percent of their time in meetings. Employees spend roughly 20 percent of their day in meetings.
